On Thursday, 4-18-91, we arrested Scott Allen HEIMERMANN, W/M, r9-23-60, of 622 NW 89th Avenue, Plantation, Florida, in his apartment. The subject was conveyed to the Plantation, Florida Police Department where he was advised of his constitutional rights. He indicated that he understood his rights and made the following, voluntary statement.

Scott related that he was born in Milwaukee. He graduated from Chilton High School and he also obtained a GED from Fox Valley Technical School in 1984 or 1985. He is currently single and lives with three friends, Phillip BRUNO (phonetic), Dennis SPOSITO and Christopher CATANZARO. His parents, Glenn and Joan, still live in Chilton, Wisconsin with a brother, Dean, W/M, 19 years and his sister, Tina, W/F, 17 years. He has another brother Mark, who is stationed in Korea with the U.S. Army. He admits previous arrests for Defrauding a Bank in 1983 and traffic offenses. He denied probation or parole status.

Scott related that he met Edward PISCITELLO in April or May of 1989 and has known Joseph ISAJIW, from grade school in Chilton, Wisconsin. He met Edward PISCITELLO at Conway's Bar on 22nd and Wells (Conway's bar located on south side of W. Wells Street - college bar). He related that Edward told him he had a lot of contacts in the real estate business. Edward also claimed that he was connected to the "mob" and that he knew a lot of important people. Edward related that his aunt had property on N. 35th Street and his mother had several properties on the east side. Scott was impressed by him because he considers himself a self-employed real estate investor. After several days, he found that Keith (apartment manager - 24th and Wisconsin) threw Ed out of the apartment building at 2445 W. Wisconsin Avenue. When Ed had no place to stay, he offered to let Ed stay in his apartment on N. Cass Street. In May or June, he got kicked out of the apartment on N. Cass Street for non-payment of rent.

Scott and Ed talked to Ed's mother and got a key to the house on S. 35th Street. They moved into the house in May or June of 1989. When they moved into the house, Ed had already removed the woodwork and sold it. When they moved in, the concrete in the basement was already broken out. There was compacted dirt in the hole. He related that after he and Ed had lived in the house for about one month, Ed offered [illegible] a place to stay. She moved into the house after the shooting of T.C. and his friend. While she lived in the house, she worked for Ed and answered the phone for several of his and Ed's businesses. She answered the phone for Jessup Music Productions, Cappish Inc., Allen Acquisitions Corp., and others.

He met T.C., (drug dealer) through Ed. He met T.C. at the apartment on Wisconsin Avenue (2445). He was at T.C.'s apartment on Wisconsin Avenue, next to McDonald's. He assumed that Eddie met him there because Eddie had lived in the same building. When he first met T.C., he (Scott), lived on Cass Street with Ed. He met Ed in the bar on 22nd and W. Wells Street (Conway's, south side of Wells Street).

He was with Ed on several occasions when they went to T.C'S apartment and also went to T.C.'s house on N. 29th Street, after he moved from the apartment.

Scott related that in August of 1989, he was in the house with Ed and Joe. #1 and Chris (friend of Joanne's) were also in the house. During the evening, they all went into the basement to target practice with two guns. Joe owned a silver automatic (large gun - large bullet), which he brought with him from UpNorth (Chilton). Ed had a smaller gun (not sure if it was a revolver or automatic). He related that he thought Joe brought both guns. On that night, they leaned a big fluffy bed pillow against the front (east) wall in the basement and fired shots into the pillow. He, Joe and Ed, all fired into the pillow (thinks they may have leaned the pillow against the rear (west) wall and fired more shots into the pillow. He related that they fired approximately one box of 50 rounds. After shooting the guns, Edward called T.C. and told him to bring some "coke" to the house. T.C., came to the house with his friend, arriving at about 10:PM. When they came, T.C., his friend and he (Scott), Ed and Joe went into the basement. They did more target practice. T.C. and his friend both fired shots from their guns (Doesn't know if T.C. and his friend had separate guns or shared one). Ed bought some cocaine after the target practice. He thinks Ed got "an 8-ball or so". T.C. and his friend were at the house for about 1½ hours before leaving, via the front door. Scott, Ed and Joe then went back upstairs. He related that T.C., and his friend came to the house a couple of times to sell dope.

About 1-2 weeks after the target practice in the basement, he, Joe and Ed were all in the house. The girls were not at the house. (At about 8:PM or 8:30PM, Ed asked him to call T.C. and have him bring some "coke".) He called T.C., talked to him, and T.C. came over in his red Nova with his friend. They came into the house after he, Scott, opened the front door and told them to come downstairs. He related that Joe was already down in the basement. He was walking downstairs and had just made a turn when Ed started shooting at T.C. and his friend who were walking behind him. Ed was in the kitchen when he came to the top of the stairs and started shooting at T.C. and his friend, who were still walking on the stairs from the first level to the landing. He heard about six, seven or eight shots.

He didn't hear Ed say anything. When the shooting started, he ran to the bottom of the stairs and ran into the rear storage room where he stayed until the shooting stopped.

When the shooting stopped, he came out of the rear room, saw one black guy on the bottom step before the landing and T.C., was lying on the basement floor. When he saw them, he ran past them and upstairs. He ran past Ed, who was standing at the top of the stairs. Ed then walked down the stairs to the guy on the landing (who he saw was still breathing), walked into the basement, got the same pillow they used for target practice, walked up to the guy on the landing, put the pillow against him and fired two or three shots. (The black guy on the landing was lying on his back and appeared conscious). T.C. was lying on his back on the basement floor. There was blood on both the stairs and in the basement.

Ed then came upstairs with the gun. Ed went back downstairs and checked to see if they were dead. Ed came up and told them they were dead.

Minutes after the shooting happened, they left the house. Eddie drove T.C.'s auto (red Nova) to a side street, on the east side. After parking T.C.'s car, Eddie got into the BM'er and they went to the bar on the east side and then to Conway's Bar. He drove the BM'er behind Eddie until they parked T.C.'s car. Eddie then drove the BM'er.

They stayed out until tavern closing, went home and they all started digging in the area where the concrete was broken out in the basement floor. They dug the hole and Eddie pulled the bodies into the hole. They all covered up the bodies with dirt.

The next day Eddie got cement from someplace on the south side. Eddie mixed the cement with Joe. They were mixing it on the floor, so they shoved it into the hole. Eddie did most of the cement work. Eddie cleaned up the blood when they put the cement in the hole.

Before Eddie put them into the hole, Eddie took a ring, necklace and other items from both victims. This was the jewelry which he, Scott, pawned at Stein's Jewelers. He related that they pawned the jewelry a couple of weeks after the shooting. He and Ed went together to pawn the jewelry. They used his name because Eddie did not have identification.

After Joe brought the guns from UpNorth, Eddie carried a gun with him in his back belt pocket at all times.

He also related that two days after the shooting he and Eddie drove back to where they parked the car (T.C.'s red Nova). Eddie then drove the car to his, Eddie's sister's house, in Whitefish Bay. He picked Eddie up and they drove back home. Eddie moved the car about one week later.

After the shooting, [illegible] moved into the house with him and Eddie. After the shooting, Eddie told him the reason for the shooting was because they were responsible for the ADONNIS shooting. In the second week of September, [illegible] Eddie and himself came to Florida where they lived together for about one month before Eddie and [illegible] were both kicked out. He also related that he did not know Eddie was going to shoot T.C. and his friend when they walked downstairs. He denies firing any kind of gun.

This statement was written during the interview. After it was written, Scott HEIMERMANN and myself read through the statement. After reading the statement, Scott HEIMERMANN stated this was a true statement. He then signed his name to the bottom of the statement (page 4). He placed his initials at the bottom of the additional pages contained in this statement. Det. Dennis MURPHY witnessed the reading of this statement and the signature of Scott HEIMERMANN.

After this statement, Scott HEIMERMANN was held on warrant J14813, charging him with First Degree Intentional Homicide. The subject was placed in the Broward County Jail.

On Monday, 4-22-91, after returning to Milwaukee, Scott HEIMERMANN was advised of his constitutional rights at 6:10PM by Det. Dennis MURPHY, in my presence. He stated he understood and made the following statement.

Regarding this offense, he related that Eddie was always talking about "killing T.C.". He denies that he participated in any plans. He knows that Eddie had a gun with him the night this occurred. Eddie always carried a gun with him. He, Scott, HEIMERMANN, usually called T.C., to come to the house to sell drugs. He does not know why Eddie was mad at T.C. that date. He related that his first statement, given Thursday, 4-18-91, was truthful.

At that time he was also questioned regarding a Homicide which occurred in Cincinatti, Ohio. He related that his only possible knowledge of this offense was that in October of 1990, Eddie (PISCITELLO) owed him some money. Eddie called him and told him he had the money. Eddie sent him an airline ticket under the name of Scott CAPPRICIO (phonetic), to fly to Cincinatti from Florida. Ed further told him he had some money and he wanted to make some investments in Cincinatti. He arrived on a Friday and left on a Thursday. He related that they partied for several days and Eddie never gave him any of the money that he was owed. He related that Eddie ran up a large debt for limo services and did not pay for it. He had an argument with Eddie, in which Eddie was in the back trunk and threatened to kill him. He further related that while in Cincinatti, Eddie told him, "he shot a man with a rifle" (in Cincinatti). He thinks the rifle had a scope. He does not know who the person was, how old the person was or where this offense occurred. After staying with the Limo driver for two days, he took a bus back to Florida.

Scott HEIMERMANN further stated that he talked with his brother and uncle who advised him that Attorneys had contacted the family and left telephone numbers. He wrote down two of the phone numbers, on a piece of yellow paper. This piece of paper was contained in his personal property. He showed us the slip of paper and it contained the telephone numbers 414-782-4628; and 414-933-6020. He related that he does not want these attorneys to represent him. He does not need an attorney. He further related "I'm trying to work with you guys. I don't need to be an asshole and have an attorney sitting with me".
